

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar

MAKING EQUALITY LEGISLATION WORK FOR TRANS PEOPLE -
AN EQUINET ROUND TABLE MEETING

Venue: Room A5E1 Altiero Spinelli building
European Parliament
60 rue Wiertz
B-1047 Brussels
Belgium

Date: Wednesday, 8 December 2010
Time: 13.00 – 17.15

Organized by Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

Hosted by Marije Cornelissen MEP

With the support of the European Commission

CONTEXT

In 2010, Equinet – European Network of Equality Bodies is implementing a special initiative to enhance the role of equality bodies in relation to tackling discrimination faced by trans people and to support new policy and good practice initiatives for equality in this area. As part of this initiative Equinet is publishing an opinion on the rights of trans people based on the experiences and practices of equality bodies with the ambition to actively and usefully contribute to European policy making and the sharing of good practice approaches.

The Equinet initiative further foresees a Round Table on Equality for Trans People. It will bring together selected equality bodies and other key stakeholders at the European level to share and discuss their respective roles in defending the rights of and promoting equality for trans people across Europe. The interactive meeting will also provide an opportunity to share and discuss the main findings and good practice approaches identified and suggested by the Equinet opinion on the rights of trans people.

PARTICIPATION

The Round Table meeting will host expert representatives from the following key stakeholders:

- Representatives from selected equality bodies
- European Commission
- European Parliament
- Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights
- EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)
- European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)
- TransGender Europe
- ILGA-Europe
- European Women's Lobby

DRAFT AGENDA

12.30 – 13.15	Arrival of participants and welcome networking (tea/coffee and sandwiches provided)
13.15 – 13.30	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Welcome and objectives of the meeting ➤ Introduction of participants ➤ Short background of the Equinet Trans Initiative and its milestones so far 	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar, Chair of Equinet
13.30 – 15.10	Practical steps for Equality Bodies to engage effectively with Trans People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Comments from the participants of the round table on the findings of the Equinet Trans Opinion ➤ Sharing of successful national examples and their follow-up from Equinet members ➤ Sharing of other (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans communities ➤ Discussion on the value of these measures and potential improvements / new tools 	Round Table discussions chaired by Mandana Zarrehparvar
15.10 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Securing legal safeguards and making equality legislation work for trans people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Perspective of the participants of the round table on equality for trans people ➤ Sharing of (planned) projects in the field of making legislation work for trans people and their organizations ➤ Discussion on the role of equality bodies and possible synergies between equality bodies and other stakeholders in responding effectively to trans people's needs 	Round Table discussions chaired by Niall Crowley Equinet Board Advisor
17.00 – 17.15	Closing the Roundtable meeting and concluding remarks	Marije Cornelissen MEP Mandana Zarrehparvar